Poetry & Comics

Do you love comics and poetry? This class is inspired by Dave Morice, author of Poetry Comics. Students' will create comics based on famous poems or write poetry about comics. We will talk about the relationship between word & image looking at examples from Morice's book. Mixed media supplies included.

Poetry & Painting

Ekphrastic art is when one art-form references another. This workshop will focus on famous poems and famous paintings that were created this way. Bring your own photographs or printouts of an artwork or poem you enjoy, and we will create works based on them. Watercolor, brushes, paper included.

Poetry & Portraits

Learn how to draw a portrait using classical measurements. We will also look at poetry written about portraits and discuss how a poem can inform a portrait or vice versa. You will have the opportunity to write a poem based on your drawing. Drawing materials included

Perspective Drawing

Would you like to give your artwork dimension? This workshop will teach you one and two point perspective. We will draw a fantasy cityscape and a room interior. Drawing materials included
